June 18, 2017 THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

FROM OUR PASTOR...

Dear friends,

The weather has been too irregular with highest warmth and rain accompanied by gusty winds. Though they are little threatening and disgusting, we needed some rain, especially the farmers. So that is a good thing. We also have been witnessing some bad events both natural and artificial. I refer to the fire in London and the shooting in Congressional ball game grounds. The intolerance between people is on the increase. People find it hard to accept other people with differences of opinions. This is not a good sign for any society. Because this will lead to ever-growing animosity between people which will eventually end up with destruction, not a constructive end. As Christians we are obliged to pray for peace in the whole world and also for tolerance between people of differences.

This week we are celebrating Fathers' Day. I wish all fathers a very happy Fathers' Day. Fathers' Day is the day when we appreciate fathers. Their sacrifice, their love and affection for their children is so enormous that they create and run the world as it is today. May God bless them all and give them all the graces they need.

While they should be appreciated and recognized with gratitude, they should also be reminded of their obligation and responsibility for the future of the world. Fathers are the sculptors of the pillars of the future world. That is why their responsibility is more and more important. They need to instill in the minds of their children the values of the Gospel and the values of human life, because, without that, we will be developing beings unworthy to be considered humans. The external features of a person do not guarantee the world a human being. But what is inside the person guarantees it. So the responsibility of fathers, parents to be inclusive, is much more important in society. They have the holistic responsibility of bringing up cultured human beings, not an uncultured, non-human beings.

Once again I wish all fathers a very Happy Fathers' Day and may all their efforts in the culturing of a better world be successful and fruitful. May all our prayers accompany them in all their endeavors for a better future of the world. God bless,

Yours sincerely,
Fr. A. Antony
