July 2, 2017
THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PASTOR...

Greetings to one and all at St. Patrick Parish!

One single bulletin article hardly does justice to anyone. How to introduce yourself on paper? So how about a little background? With time, all the details will come, isn't that the way it works in a good conversation? To get the whole story, it takes time.

I grew up in Chippewa Falls and attended the Catholic schools there all the way through McDonell High School. Then on to UW-EC. From there to teach in South Korea returning to enter the seminary. I was ordained in 1999. I have served in La Crosse, Stevens Point, Bloomer, and now Mauston. So I have covered a good portion of the diocese. I have served in numerous positions for the diocese.

I did attend the last World Youth Days held in Poland and was able to wave to Pope Francis who was just across the fence from where we were. One of my summer projects was to upgrade my deer hunting stand. So we will see how that goes. I do like to hit the ball around the golf course and, with all my swings, I get my money's worth. I am happy the Brewers are doing so well but I am looking forward a little more to the start of the Packer's season.

My family lives around the Chippewa area with a brother up north, so I am the one moving further away from them. One of the Bishop's phone calls brought me closer to them for awhile and another call is taking me away from them. So is life. I am looking forward to calling Mauston home. Any true home is home because of the people. Please be patient as we come to know each other as family at St. Patrick's.
