March 11, 2018
FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

FROM OUR PASTOR:

Somehow you would think that Lent should be a nice quiet time to reflect and go deeper into prayer. Yet there has been a number of activities that seems to fill the calendar right up. Many of them good like the many youth activities we have in the parish. These are on the website but we also use Snapchat to make sure the young people have that info right at their fingertips.

I think we have had a very nice turn out for the Stations before Mass on the week end. Thank you for coming early enough to participate. That prayer is so tied to the season of Lent. But reflecting on the Lord's passion, death and resurrection should give us hope in any of the trials we may face in daily family life.

Our communal penance service is coming up on the 22nd of March at 7 p.m.. Of course any Saturday at 4 p.m. is available too. Our Gospel from last Sunday speaks of cleansing the temple and we are reminded that on our baptism day we were made temples of the Holy Spirit. So is the Spirit fully alive in our temple and have space to move around or have we filled our hearts with all kinds of other things?

Almsgiving is also a part of Lent. If you have not participated in the Annual Appeal yet, there is time. In the back of church there is also the purple envelopes for a special sacrificial Lenten gift. "Gratitude releases us from the bonds of obligation and prepares us to offer ourselves freely and fully for the work of the kingdom." Henri Nouwen

FORMED ~ Our FORMED Pick of the Week is an audio drama called The Trials of St. Patrick. We've all heard the story of St. Patrick, but there's more to his life than shamrocks and snakes. Did you know that young Patrick was a Roman citizen, kidnapped from his home and taught to pray during his time of slavery? With cinematic sound effects and a captivating story, The Trials of St. Patrick will introduce you to this well-known but oft-misunderstood saint. This week, in time for Saint Patrick's day next weekend, login to formed.org and listen to The Trials of St. Patrick.

FORMED is for the WHOLE family. Register at stpatricks-mauston.formed.org. You can also download an app for your Android or I-phone from your Play Store. Take some time this Lenten season to check it out!
