FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

FROM OUR PASTOR

As we celebrated the feast of our patron saint, St. Patrick, we may have noticed that the vestment for that feast is purple. We are in the season of Lent. On Friday we celebrated the solemnity of St. Joseph, patron of the universal Church, and the color of the vestment was white. And we are still in the season of Lent. So what is the deal?

To help us look more deeply at this the Roman Missal will guide us in seeing the difference in the celebration of the two feast days.

“Each and every day is sanctified by the liturgical celebration of the People of God, especially by the Eucharistic Sacrifice and the Divine Office. The liturgical day runs from midnight to midnight. However, the celebration of Sunday and of Solemnities begins already on the evening of the previous day.

SUNDAY. On the first day of each week, which is known as the Day of the Lord or the Lord’s Day, the Church, by an apostolic tradition that draws its origin from the very day of the Resurrection of Christ, celebrates the Paschal Mystery. Hence, Sunday must be considered the primordial feast day.

SOLEMNITIES FEASTS and MEMORIALS. In the cycle of the year, as she celebrates the mystery of Christ, the Church also venerates with a particular love the Blessed Mother of God, Mary, and proposes to the devotion of the faithful the Memorials of the Martyrs and other saints.

Celebrations, according to the importance assigned to them, are hence distinguished one from another and termed: Solemnity, Feast, Memorial. Solemnities are counted among the most important days, whose celebration begins with First Vespers (Evening Prayer I) on the preceding day. Some Solemnities are also endowed with their own Vigil Mass, which is to be used on the evening of the preceding day, if an evening Mass is celebrated.

Feasts are celebrated within the limits of the natural day; accordingly they have no First Vespers (evening Prayer I), except in the case of Feasts of the Lord that fall on a Sunday in Ordinary Time or in the Christmas time and which replace the Sunday Office.”

So as we can see St. Joseph’s celebration is a solemnity, out ranking St. Patrick’s feast day. As they are both saints, it is not a problem for them. I am sure both are very pleased if we take time on those days for prayer.

The difference between them helps us to see their importance to the universal Church and to our life of faith. We can turn to both in our time of need. I hope that this bit of liturgical information will spur you on to learn more about feast days and the saints themselves. Feast days give us a nice touch of variety, even in the season of Lent.

St. Patrick, pray for us.
St. Joseph, pray for us.

Preparing for Easter: Receiving God's Healing and Strength ~ Every person faces temptations. Jesus has obtained the grace for us, not only to resist temptation, but the grace to receive His forgiveness when we fall. This amazing gift of grace has been purchased for us at the price of Christ's Blood, shed in His Passion and Death and made available to us through His Resurrection! Therefore, this is a most appropriate time to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

CEMETERY CLEAN-UP will be April 28 or 29. If you have items that you wish to save, please remove them by April 25th. You will be able to replace them in time for Mother's Day Weekend.

Scrip is sold during the week at the rectory office. You can stop by to purchase during our office hours or call or e-mail ahead and we will have your order ready for you to pick up.

200 Envelopes Fundraiser:

Please help out by taking one (or two) of the purple envelopes hanging on the board in the gathering area and returning them with your donation before Easter. This year, there will also be an on-line option for making your donations. Please go to:

stp200envelopes.ggo.bid or use our on-line giving option on our website: stpatrickismauston.com (Click on the green triangle in the upper left corner.)

The money raised this year will be used toward our

"School Boiler Replacement Project"

We have collected $ 6,418.00 so far.

Thank you for supporting our parish and school!

WATCH THE SANCTUARY COURSE FOR CATHOLICS

Today, misconceptions surrounding mental illness can prevent us from responding well to those suffering. This eight-session course explores the realities of mental illness, as well as the need for faith-based conversations about this topic. The sessions feature the stories of Catholics living with mental health challenges, along with the insights of archbishops, theologians, and psychologists.
