FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT

FROM OUR PASTOR

Next week is Holy week! To prepare for it, try the communal penance service here at St. Patrick at 7 pm on Thursday. Confession and getting rid of unneeded baggage was one of the messages of the parish mission this last week.

Tuesday of Holy week the Chrism Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Callahan. It is open to the public. With all the work that has been done on the Cathedral the beauty of that Mass will be even greater this year. At this Mass the diocesan priests renew their promises made on the day of their ordination. Also all the oils that will be used in the celebration of sacraments will be blessed and consecrated.

These oils are usually presented on Holy Thursday at the Mass of the Lord's Supper back in our home parishes. The Bishop receives gallons of olive oil. He blesses the oil of the Catechuminate and the oil of the Sick. The first oil is used at baptism. By the name we can see that the second oil is for the Anointing of the Sick. He then consecrates the Sacred Chrism. Chrism is used to celebrate the sacrament of Confirmation. It is also used at the ordination of priests as their hands are anointed. So too the dedication of churches and altars.

The Holy Triduum is the celebration of the holy three days. Holy Thursday marks the celebration of the Mass of the Lord's supper. The season of Lent ends as that Mass begins. The Triduum is its own 'season'. Good Friday marks the good work of Jesus winning our salvation on the Cross. We recall His passion and death on that day. On such a solemn day we do not celebrate the Mass as the Mass celebrates His resurrection and that liturgically has not yet happened.

Then the great liturgy of the Easter Vigil. In many people's minds this is the long Mass late at night. Obviously it is much more than that. It begins this year at 8:30 pm. It is broken up into special parts. The blessing of the Easter fire and Easter Candle. The Easter candle itself is filled with many details and is a very rich symbol in our faith. We have the readings from salvation history. The bells, Gloria and Alleluia are all brought back into our celebration. Then Easter!!

Then the Easter season begins and we need this time for all the graces to sink into our lives. Perhaps we take many things for granted since we celebrate these mysteries of faith each year. But they are so rich and deep. I hope that someone has said to you "I love you." That isn't meant to be a once in a lifetime utterance. They may say it again in words or with a gesture or with a look or with words in a card or a touch or..... So too with God as He speaks to us through the liturgy. Holy Week shows us that God loves us to death and beyond. He tells us in many ways so that we get it.

So I encourage you to enter Holy Week well prepared and ready to hear God say "I love you" over and over again. May the rest of your Lent be a time to open your hearts so that we too can respond with love for God and that love may pour over to our neighbor.
