EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Happy Easter!!

"The Lord is truly risen, alleluia! To Him be glory and power for all the ages of eternity, alleluia, alleluia!" Easter Sunday entrance antiphon

Sin and death are truly defeated. Now it is only the battles in our lives, hearts and minds that they try to hold on. But they can't hold us. The Resurrection shows us that the journey continues. The grave is not our last stop. The lights do not simply go out and there is nothing. Those lies of the world are proven false. We are to rejoice, to cry Alleluia!!

This whole week after Easter is an octave and solemnity. We need these eight days to allow that reality of the resurrection to sink into our hearts. We work on the surface level most of the time. On the level of what I can measure with tools of this world. Yet how do you measure or weigh the Resurrection? How much volume does hope fill? Let alone measure the love the Father has for us by raising Jesus from the dead and promising us the same on the last day?

His mercy is everlasting and beyond measure. That is the message of Divine Mercy Sunday. Our Lord spoke to St. Faustina about those who do not turn to Him, don't believe that they can be forgiven or given a second chance. The image He had her promote shows His heart pouring out mercy through His blood and water that came from His pierced sacred heart.

At St. Patrick's parish on Divine Mercy Sunday, adoration will follow the 10 am Mass until Noon. During that time confessions will be heard and Jesus' promised special graces granted to those who receive it worthily. The Chaplet will begin at 11:45. Benediction will close out that time of prayer, confession and adoration.

A little holy humor to add to the joy of the Resurrection.

–A sandwich walks into a bar. The barman says, "Sorry, we don't serve food here."

–What did one worm say to the other? I'm moving to the Big Apple.

–Why does a burger have less energy than a steak? Because a burger is in its ground state.

–What happened when a ship carrying purple paint and the ship carrying red paint crashed into an island? The sailors were marooned.

–Why do chicken coops only have two doors? Because if they had four doors, they would be chicken sedans.

–Why did the cowgirl take hay to bed? To feed her night-mares.

–What's a polar bear's favorite food? Ice-bergers.

FORMED

All or Nothing: Sr. Clare

A budding actress leaves her career and the open doors to fame behind to give her life to God. Some might see this as a total failure. But was it? Those who knew Sr. Clare speak in this film. After her tragic death in the 2016 earthquake in Ecuador, the failure might be seen as having reached its devastating end. Yet, many think that the story doesn't end there. Thanks to the Servant Sisters' archives with over 15 years of photos and videos of Sr. Clare's life, HM Television presents this documentary to show you the real-life story of this Sister who gave her ALL to God, keeping NOTHING back. To watch this video as well as hundreds of other movies, go to formed.org.
