SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

FROM OUR PASTOR

From the Knights of Columbus' booklet on the Gifts of the Holy Spirit I offer the following reflection of the gift of the Fear of the Lord. "Because of this holy, loving fear, Jesus did not turn away from his agony or the anguish of the Passion. Something greater than the torment of torture overwhelmed him and moved him to reject utterly any deed that would have separated him in the slightest way from doing the will of his Father. Thus it was precisely the evil of violence and punishment--the evil that was meant to discourage Jesus ("Do you not know that I have the power to crucify you?")[Jn 19:10] --that urged him on! For by faithfully responding to the Gift of Fear in his human soul, Jesus provided the way for the servile fear of others to be transformed into authentic filial fear. By his own suffering and love, Jesus teaches us and enables us to seek reconciliation and unending communion with God above all things.

In Jesus' Fear of the Lord we come to understand how we can expect the Gift of Fear will be active in our own souls. As we see in the Passion, one chief effect of Fear of the Lord is a total and pure humility. With Fear of the Lord, we are not only willing but eager and joyful at the prospect of enduring suffering for the sake of God and his plan of salvation. Holy Fear disciplines us, so that we stop seeking glory for ourselves, but instead seek God's glory and our own happiness in him. Fear of the Lord reveres and loves God, and so uproots the very beginnings of human pride. Fear is a remedy for all pride and arrogance of spirit, which are the evils most likely to lead us away from the Lord.

This effect of humility increases in proportion to our charity. The more we love God, the more we fear to offend him and to be separated from him. Yet the more we love God, the less we fear punishment--true love saves us from being preoccupied with our own welfare, and makes us pay attention not to punishment but to the awesome love that we cannot afford to lose.

Today with the celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday, it concludes the Octave of Easter. We have passed through the Passion of our Lord and now enter the new life He offers us by the resurrection. We are reminded that it is love that moves the heart of the Father to send the Son. Jesus is moved by love to mount the Cross for each of us. The Spirit of Love will be given on Pentecost.

For our Confirmation candidates, that they are to be purified by love in preparation for their reception of the sacrament. The above reflection allows us to consider more deeply the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. We can take them for granted or perhaps more often wonder what do we do with them? We often divide out the spiritual and all that we do and use in our everyday life. The Gifts of the Holy Spirit are not meant to be used only on Sunday or in the walls of the church building; but be there ready in all situations so we have the needed grace to respond well and by our actions and words reveal the Good News of Jesus.

Fear of the Lord can seem to be an odd gift. Yet as we see it lived out in the life of Jesus, one that makes all the difference as He took up His Cross for us. So filled with Easter joy, may we consider how we can use the gift of Fear of the Lord to help us pick up our own cross and follow the resurrected Lord each and every day. Alleluia, Alleluia.

If you are interested in helping out with the cost, we will gladly accept your donation. Please mark your check or envelope "Hymnal Donation". Thank you!

Formed ~ Pick of the Week

Celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday with this week's FORMED pick. Join Fr. Michael Gaitley on a breathtaking journey to uncover the reality of God's merciful love. In this Telly-award-winning Augustine Institute series, Fr. Gaitley weaves together history, Sacred Scripture, the prophetic apparitions of Fatima, and the world-changing witness of Sts. Faustina, Maximillian Kolbe, and John Paul II to tell us the amazing story of God's message for our modern times in the Divine Mercy devotion.

This week, go to formed.org and start watching the series Divine Mercy In The Second Greatest Story Ever Told.

Every two years, the Wisconsin Catholic Conference (WCC) joins several Catholic organizations in hosting Catholics at the Capitol. Catholics at the Capitol 2019 will take place at the Monona Terrace Community and Convention Center in Madison on Tuesday, April 30, 2019. All are welcome to join. For information and registration, go to www.wisconsinatholic.org or call the Wisconsin Catholic Conference at 608-257-0004.

DON'T FORGET TO PURCHASE YOUR SCRIP TODAY AFTER MASS!
Scrip is available during the week at the rectory office.
