THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

FROM OUR PASTOR

April and May are busy times in the parish. Some of the reasons are not so happy. We had Shirley, Leo and Barb's funerals this past week. Again our condolences to all the family and friends who mourn them.

We also gathered for the Holy Happy Hour on the last Tuesday of the month. If you missed it please plan for the next one. People have enjoyed them and even learned a little something.

This Sunday is our celebration of First Communion for our second graders. They are excited and have been preparing all year for this great moment. Perhaps we can pick up some of their excitement when we receive Jesus each Sunday. What a blessing considering that we have so recently celebrated the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday. Now our second graders can receive the gift of Jesus' Body and Blood as He said, "do this in memory of me." And now they can!

Heads up for May 8th. The morning Mass will be at 7:30 instead of the usual 8 am. I figured that the chaperones needed a chaperone to the Brewers game that day. We are taking the middle school to Miller Park. There are school events and activities at the ballpark for the students before the game.

Then off to La Crosse on Thursday for the Dean's meeting with the Bishop. That night is the PCCW banquet. A good way for our ladies of the parish to celebrate the many events that they led in our parish this past year.

Friday is the Walk for Virtues with all the school children. Pray for good weather. Which seems harder to do for a whole day of good weather this spring.

On May 11-12, (then) Deacon Sam McCarty will be here for all the Masses. If all goes well, he may be able to stay for our youth night.

So yes, April and May have many things going on. Plus all the usual events and activities. To keep up to date, keep an eye on our Facebook page. The "MyParish" app is also handy on your phone with updates and current events from the parish and the diocese.

To keep your faith fresh, go on the FORMED site. They are adding new material all the time. Some of the talks and programs are tied into the season. So as we will spend the next few weeks in the Easter season, there will be material particular to and for Easter.

Not to get too overwhelmed, let's end with some humor.

- Why did the two worms have to leave their apple to get onto Noah's ark? Because everyone had to go in pears.
- What happened to the dog that swallowed a watch? He got ticks.
- What happens when you get a gold tooth? You put your money where your mouth is.
- Why don't snowboarders make good plumbers? Because they only know about half-pipes.

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

May 18 Nicolle Granger & Matthew Powell

Thank you to everyone for your generosity last weekend in support of our PCCW Low Sunday collection.

Are you willing to sponsor one of the large flower pots that decorate the front of the church for the summer? The cost is $45.00 per pot. Please contact the rectory if you are interested.

Cemetery Clean-Up: We want to thank the 8th grade class along with chaperones Amy Zenthoefer & Ashley Finger for all their help with cleanup at the cemetery. Their help and attitudes were so appreciated. They were the only volunteers who showed to help.

Also as a reminder the dumpsters at the cemetery are for discarded flowers and pots only. Not for discarded dirt, bags of discarded garbage, pampers, sewing machine, vacuum cleaner, & household throwaways.

We appreciate your help in keeping the grounds pleasant and beautiful for the families of our deceased members. We are also in need of volunteers. You? Contact Carrol Kaiser if you can help out. Thank you!

Formed ~ Pick of the Week

In this week's FORMED Pick, hear about the miraculous event largely regarded as the most important spiritual event of the last century. Listen to a talk by Fr. Jason Brook in which he explains the significance of the Marian apparitions at Fatima and why the message Our Lady gave there is so important for us today.

This week, go to formed.org and listen to Fatima: Living the Message.
