FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

FROM OUR PASTOR

As we saw in last week's bulletin, there are many events coming up in the next few weeks. Facebook and our google calendar are good ways to keep track of all that is going on.

Some of the events are receiving a sacrament. We had a wonderful day for First Communion. All the second graders were very excited and ready to receive Jesus for the first time. The weather cooperated for the families too.

We have a wedding coming up in the month of May. In just a week or so our Confirmation candidates will be receiving the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of Confirmation.

With all these sacraments being celebrated, it is good for us to reflect on how do I live them out? The sacraments are a part of the ebb and flow of our parish life. Each Sunday we celebrate the Holy Eucharist. Each Saturday the sacrament of Reconciliation is offered. I have been to homes and the hospital to anoint different people.

Sacraments are a means of grace. They bring us the life of God. They are a gift given and designed by God for our good according to His plan for our salvation. All of this is Good News. Like any good news, we want to share it. It fills us with excitement.

Is that the way with the sacraments? Do we share them as good news? Do we mention as part of what we did this past weekend was going to Mass as a family? Do we remind people that God's mercy is there for them in the sacrament of penance? And how, when we last went, it was a load off of our shoulders?

We are only too happy to share on Yelp what a great new restaurant we found or post a great meal on Facebook. Yet how do we describe going to Mass where the Lord Jesus Himself is the meal!! We gather at our home as family and tell many of the same stories even though we know how they turned out. How familiar are we with the family of faith stories we have in the scriptures?

We often put off going to the doctors because we know what they are going to tell us. Many also put off getting or asking for the Anointing of the Sick. Many know that it is a good thing, but... Some still have the sense of the old name it once had, Extreme Unction. The sense and name changed during the Second Vatican Council, over 55 years ago. We may be good at getting updates on our phones but not so good about keeping ourselves up to date or growing and maturing in the faith.

The Second Vatican Council spoke of a disconnect between our life of faith and living in the world. Jesus spoke of living in the world but not being a part of the world. That can be a challenge. There are many good things that the world offers. But we are not to settle for them. They are to be seen as gifts that get us to the true and lasting Good News that we want to share. May we not be too busy this time of year to open ourselves to the grace and life our Risen Lord offers in moment of celebration, especially through the sacraments.
