SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Need for New Evangelization

I am very much excited with last week's announcement that I will be assigned at St. Mary's, Lyndon Station. This is part of priestly life, we don't get attached to one place. A priest going to a parish is like a ship entering into a harbor, either to load or unload. I am reminded of the beautiful words that I learned from my junior seminary, "Bloom where you are planted". The environmental factors such as soil, climate, water, manure and the care play a major role in blooming process. Hope I will have a sound environment at St. Mary's, Lyndon Station.

We are in the sixth week of Easter. We continue to read part of the farewell speech of Jesus in John's Gospel. We read from the Acts of the Apostles, how the early church grew fast with the commitment of the disciples and the believers and their broad minded attitude. What is our thought on Evangelization and need for New Evangelization in the church today? Some thoughts derived from AUC magazine.

Evangelization is a mandate received directly from Jesus as he exhorted "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." (Mat. 28:19). The Second Vatican Council affirmed this, declaring that the Church is "missionary by her very nature." Hence let's discuss three basic questions regarding Evangelization:

What to Evangelize? To evangelize is nothing but to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the good news of his incarnation, life, passion, death and resurrection. Pope Paul VI says: "Thus it has been possible to define evangelization in terms of proclaiming Christ to those who do not know Him, of preaching, of catechetical, of conferring Baptism and the other sacraments."

Who to Evangelize? The responsibility of evangelization does not fall on only to the consecrated persons. But the entire Church is called to evangelize. As the Father sent the Son and the Son sent the Spirit, so, the Triune God sends the Church to "make men share in the communion between the Father and the Son in their Spirit of Love" (CCC 850). This is a participation in the prophetic mission that each Catholic receives at baptism. It takes place in the ordinary activities and circumstances of life like at home, in the work place, at school, and everywhere. Evangelization should come from everyone as a desire for all to be saved.

How to Evangelize? The third question recalls the words of St. Francis of Assisi, "Preach the gospel always, if necessary, use words". The methods of evangelizing vary according to the different circumstances of time, place and culture. An essential form of evangelization is witness in both words and deeds. As St John Paul II noted, "People today put more trust in witnesses than in teachers, in experience than in teaching, and in life and actions than in theories." In addition, other means of evangelization include preaching (both within and outside of liturgical celebrations), catechesis and mass media as well. "Woe to me," St Paul lamented, "if I do not preach the Gospel" (1 Cor. 9:16). "Faith is strengthened," St John Paul II exclaimed, "when it is given to others". Evangelization, thus, entails real joy and inner happiness.

Need for New Evangelization: The New Evangelization calls each of us to deepen our faith, believe in the Gospel message and go forth to proclaim the Gospel. The focus of the New Evangelization calls all Catholics to be evangelized and then go forth to evangelize. In a special way, the New Evangelization is focused on re-proposing the Gospel to those who have experienced a crisis of faith. Pope Benedict XVI called for the re-proposing of the Gospel "to those regions awaiting the first evangelization and to those regions where the roots of Christianity are deep but who have experienced a serious crisis of faith due to secularization." Let us respond to the invitation for The New Evangelization to renew our relationship with Jesus and his Church.

FORMED

The 13th Day

In a world torn apart by persecution, war, and oppression, three children in Fatima, Portugal, were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. Based on the memoirs of the oldest seer, Lucia Santos, and many thousands of independent eye-witness accounts, The 13th Day dramatizes the true story of three young shepherds who experienced six apparitions of Our Lady between May and October 1917, which culminated in the final prophesied Miracle of the Sun on October 13. Abducted from their homes, thrown into prison, and interrogated under the threat of death in the government's attempt to silence them, the children remained true to their story about the crucial messages from Mary of prayer, repentance, and conversion for the world.

Our Lady gave a secret to the children told in three parts, from a harrowing vision of hell, to prophetic warnings of future events including the advent and timing of the Second World War, the spread of Communism, and the attempted assassination of the Pope.

This movie is not rated, but was created with an adult audience in mind. It may contain violence indicative of the life and times of the saint or character portrayed. We would recommend Parental Guidance and that parents preview it before watching with children.*
