

May 28, 2023 PENTECOST SUNDAY

FROM OUR PASTOR

Another whole school year in the books. So many wonderful events and points to celebrate at St. Patrick's school. This past week we had our last school Mass together. As I told the students and staff, I am very grateful for their being a part of the journey the last 6 years. It all has seemed to go rather quickly. I am sure the 8th graders can say the same. Their graduation Mass was Thursday night. Before the Mass was the awards ceremony. Their service and achievements were celebrated. We have some very talented students and generous kids who give of themselves and their time to their school, teams, and community.

The last day of School ended with awards day for all the students. Then we were able to gather together with many of the families to have a cookout. What a fun way to end the school year.

This coming Monday will be Memorial Day. We as a nation pause before all the busyness of summer to remember those in the military who have died while serving our country. Mass will be at 8 am in the gym. A service will be offered at St. Patrick's cemetery at 11 am. (That is dependent on the weather, which can always change.)

May 30th, Tuesday, will be our Holy Happy Hour. It will be the last one that I host. Perhaps Fr. Jey may pick it up or be hosted by another person. So please join me for that at State Street Tap for our fellowship and intentional conversation that will follow.

For some of the summer events, the Parish council is working on the details of these get-togethers. Please watch the bulletin for more details as things progress.

Keep in your prayers our four deacons who will be ordained on June 24th at the Cathedral. They are Deacons Alex Kren, John Zweber, Jared Clements and Isaac Pecha. Deacon Jared spent some time with us here at St. Patrick. I am looking forward to being at his first Mass in his home parish of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Holmen. I hope that this inspires our young men of the parish to pray about being a priest and serving the people of God in our diocese.

Prayer for vocations:

"Heavenly Father, bless your church with an abundance of holy and zealous priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those You have called to the married state and those You have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of Your Son, so that in Him, with Him, and through Him, we may love You more deeply and serve You more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen."

The Flame of Love devotion is a devotion for our times! In the 20th century, Our Lord and Our Lady spoke to Elizabeth Kindelman and asked for greater devotion to the Immaculate Heart. Come and learn more about the Flame of Love devotion and why it is so important for our times as we pray for our country, for families, and for the conversion of sinners. Those who keep to this devotion receive special gifts of the Holy Spirit, and Jesus desires to give you those particular gifts which will be explained by Fr. Daniel Schuster a priest of the Green Bay Diocese. Join us for this gathering on Tuesday, June 6th at St. Francis of Assisi Parish Necedah, at 7:00 pm where we will be filled with the Holy Spirit and pray the Flame of Love Rosary with these special gifts in mind.

We are also looking help watering our beautiful flowers outside the church. We are looking help one weekday per week and / or on the weekends. Please give us a call at the rectory if you are willing to help out!

Eucharistic Revival:
A Minute with Jesus for May 28th

The Holy Spirit and the Eucharist Even after the Apostles had experienced the Risen Christ, they were afraid. They gathered with Mary on the day of Pentecost and prayed behind locked doors, waiting as instructed for the Gift of the Holy Spirit. After the Holy Spirit descended upon them on Pentecost, the Apostles were no longer afraid and were equipped to fulfill their mission. It is the same for us today. When we receive the Eucharist, we also receive God the Holy Spirit, to abide in the depths of our hearts. If we allow Him, the Spirit of Truth will transform us and we will no longer be afraid, but be equipped with peace and strength for our mission. Let us then prepare for each Eucharistic encounter in the same way the Apostles prepared for Pentecost, “in prayer ... with Mary ...” (Acts 1:14).

FORMED Pick of the Week

Saint Philip Neri: I Prefer Heaven

An epic feature film on the famous "Apostle of Rome" and great friend of youth in the 16th century. One of the most popular saints of all time, St. Philip Neri was widely known for his great charity, deep prayer life, and tremendous humor. Hoping to join St. Ignatius of Loyola's new order of Jesuits and be a missionary to India, Providence instead guided Philip to seek out the poor and abandoned youth of Rome to catechize them in the faith and help them find a better life. He became the founder of the religious congregation, the Oratory, that worked with the youth and also labored to re-evangelize a decadent Rome.

This captivating film highlights Neri's great love for youth, his warm sense of humor, contagious joy, deep mystical spirituality, and his amazing gift for miracles. Actor Gigi Proietti gives a moving performance as St. Philip in this beautifully produced film that is directed by Giacomo Campiotti, director of the acclaimed films Bakhita: From Slave to Saint and St. Giuseppe Moscatti.

(PARENTAL GUIDANCE SUGGESTED) This movie is not rated, but has mature themes and was created with an adult audience in mind. It contains scenes, including violence, indicative of the life and times of the saint portrayed. We would recommend Parental Guidance and that parents preview it before watching with children.
