

June 16, 2024 ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PASTOR:

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, Praise be to the Lord. I am still in India with my family members, relatives and friends, of course in my diocese. There is only one more week to go to come to my mission in Mauston. I believe that you, my dear spiritual brothers, sisters and children, understand how I feel, when I come away from my own people, culture and country. You all know that I was away few often last year, because of the death of my brother and my father, and now for the Silver Jubilee celebration of my older sister. Otherwise, I have no other intention to get out from my own parish St. Pat's. This week, I write about St. Barnabas.

Barnabas, a Jew of Cyprus, comes as close as anyone outside the Twelve to being a full-fledged apostle. He was closely associated with Saint Paul—he introduced Paul to Peter and the other apostles—and served as a kind of mediator between the former persecutor and the still suspicious Jewish Christians. When a Christian community developed at Antioch, Barnabas was sent as the official representative of the church of Jerusalem to incorporate them into the fold. He and Paul instructed in Antioch for a year, after which they took relief contributions to Jerusalem.

But all was not peaceful. They were expelled from one town, they had to go to Jerusalem to clear up the ever-recurring controversy about circumcision, and even the best of friends can have differences. When Paul wanted to revisit the places they had evangelized, Barnabas wanted to take along his cousin John Mark, author of the Gospel, but Paul insisted that since Mark had deserted them once, he was not fit to take along now. Barnabas is spoken of simply as one who dedicated his life to the Lord. He was a man “filled with the Holy Spirit and faith. Thereby, large numbers were added to the Lord.” Even when he and Paul were expelled from Antioch in Pisidia—modern-day Turkey—they were “filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.”

God bless, Fr. Jey.

On July 1st, Pope Francis will preside over a Consistory of Cardinals, which will deliberate the canonization of Blessed Carlo Acutis, an Italian teenager who died in 2006 at just 15 years of age. He was born in London, but grew up in Milan, where he managed the website for his parish and a Vatican-based academy. He created an online database of Eucharistic miracles worldwide, and was known as "God's Influencer." He was beatified in 2020. Last month the Holy Father Pope Francis attributed a second miracle to him, which involved the healing of a university student who had a brain bleed. It is expected that, on July 1st, the date of his canonization will be announced. Blessed Carlo Acutis died in Monza, Italy, and his body was moved to Assisi where it is on display at the Church of Saint Mary Major.

Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, Bless your Church with an abundance of holy and zealous priests, deacons, brothers, and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Form us all in the likeness of Your Son, so that in Him, with Him, and through Him, we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary, we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
