CORPUS CHRISTI

THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

Some lessons from Biblical Characters on 'Fathers' Day'

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi). This day is a reminder for us of how Jesus broke himself for the life of humanity. It is very fitting that we celebrate Fathers' Day today. Every father is called to live a selfless life for his own family.

Fathers play an important role in the lives of their children. They have the opportunity to set an example of what it means to live a righteous life. Fathers have the special privilege and calling to guide their children and help them grow into balanced, God-honoring adults. This calling requires constant sacrifice and increasing wisdom. As I wish "Happy Fathers' Day" for all the fathers living and dead, let me share some lessons from Biblical characters given by Jack Zavada.

God the Father: The most important father figure in the Bible is God the Father—the ultimate role model for all human dads. His love, kindness, patience, wisdom, and protectiveness are impossible standards to live up to. Fortunately, he is also forgiving and understanding, answering fathers' prayers, and giving them expert guidance so they can be the man their family wants them to be.

-God is constant, he never changes. We can depend on Him. - God is faithful. - God is love. Our heavenly father is an example for earthly fathers to emulate.

Adam – The first Father: As the first man and first human father, Adam had no example to follow except for God's. Regrettably, he strayed from God's example and ended up plunging the world into sin. Ultimately, he was left to deal with the tragedy of his son Cain murdering his other son, Abel. Adam has much to teach today's fathers about the consequences of our actions and the absolute necessity of obeying God.

-God is looking for fathers who freely choose to obey him and submit to his love. -Fathers with integrity live in the knowledge that nothing is hidden from God's sight. -Instead of blaming others, godly fathers take responsibility for their own failures and shortcomings.

Noah – A Righteous Father: Noah stands out among fathers in the Bible as a man who clung to God in spite of the wickedness all around him. What could be more relevant today? Noah was far from perfect, but he was humble and protective of his family. He bravely carried out the task God assigned to him. Modern fathers may often feel they are in a thankless role, but God is always pleased by their devotion.

-God promises to bless and protect those who faithfully follow and obey him. - Obedience is not a sprint but a marathon. It means a lifetime of faithful devotion. - Even the most faithful fathers have weaknesses and can fall into sin.

Abraham –The Father of Faith: What could be more frightening than being the father of an entire nation? That was the mission God gave Abraham. He was a leader of tremendous faith, passing one of the most difficult tests God ever gave a man: offering his son Isaac as a sacrifice. Abraham made mistakes when he relied on himself instead of God. Still, he embodied qualities that any father would be wise to develop.

-God wants to use us, in spite of our shortcomings. He will even rescue and support us through our foolish mistakes. - Genuine faith pleases God. - God's purposes and plans are revealed in phases over a lifetime of obedience.

The Quality of a father can be seen in the Goals, Dreams & Aspirations he sets for his Family.

Corpus Christi~ This Weekend —Please join us after the 10 AM Mass to walk down with Jesus in the monstrance to the pavilion at Riverside park. There we will have a table set up to rest the monstrance on until 2 pm. Then benediction and simply walk back to the church. The pavilion we have reserved is the one by the boat dock/parking lot side. So that will allow you to come in your car if you wish and park and give thanks. Or you can get out and set up a chair in the lawn to spend time with Jesus. Feel free to come and go as you need to.

Religious Freedom Week – June 22-29: Life and Dignity for All Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all. Beginning June 22, the feast of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, the USCCB invites Catholics to pray, reflect, and act to promote religious freedom. For reflections for each day, visit diolc.org/religious-freedom.

Everyone is invited to come to St. Patrick's (on the lawn between the school and the church) on Friday evening, July 8th at 5:30 PM for our summer parish picnic. Join us for chicken dinner, libations, music and socializing. Hope to see you there!

* Musicians: We would love to have you join our music ministry and will support you in your commitment to our liturgies. Please contact Ann Benz ann.benz@ymail.com

The Spirit and the Eucharist

"At the center of the Church is the Eucharist, where Christ is present and active in humanity and in the whole world by means of the Holy Spirit." -

Pope St. John Paul II

The Eucharistic liturgy is saturated with the presence of the Holy Spirit. From the moment you decide to go to Mass, the Holy Spirit is active and alive. Sadly, many people don't experience the Holy Spirit, and attending Mass becomes a chore for them rather than a life giving encounter with Jesus. In this segment we will look at a few of the many ways that the Holy Spirit is present in the Mass that will enable you to encounter God when you attend the Liturgy.

Prayer Opportunities

Hour of Mercy: Tuesdays from 3 PM to 4 PM—time of prayer, litany and chaplet on behalf of our Church and the world.

Praying the Rosary: Join us on Thursdays at 2 PM in church to pray the rosary. Our intention is for “peace in Eastern Europe and throughout the world.” The rosary is live-streamed on our parish Facebook page.

Holy Hour: Each Friday we have Holy Hour from 3 PM to 4 PM. On First Fridays, we have Exposition and Adoration following morning Mass until benediction at 4 PM.

If you happen to still have one of our blue “Gather” hymnals at home, we ask that you return it at your convenience. We are trying to get them all gathered back up. Thanks you!!
