

June 30, 2024 THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PASTOR:

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, Praise be to the Lord. I am back to the parish. I began saying Masses from Tuesday 25th on. I hope and pray everything goes well with me in this parish. God will give me His blessings in abundance to stay healthy and to serve you all with more humility. Please keep me in your constant prayers. This week I am writing about Our Mother of Perpetual Help. I found these lines beautiful and meaningful about our Holy Mother and the Rosary. "A treasure map does not become worthless because it is old."

Nobody finds one and throws it away simply because it is aged and worn. Its value is not determined by how new or old it is. The value of a treasure map is determined by two factors: Does the map lead to treasure? How great is the treasure? The Rosary is a treasure map. And every time we pray it, Our Mother of Perpetual Help comes to take care of us just like she took care of Jesus. A classic form of devotion to Our Mother of Perpetual Help is praying the Rosary, either every Wednesday or for nine days in a row as a novena.

The Rosary is an ancient practice, but that does not make it any less powerful. The people of this age have a tendency to look down on things that are old, and a particular way of dismissing ancient wisdom as irrelevant to modern life. The Catholic faith and the Rosary have suffered at the hands of this foolishness. Catholicism is a treasure map. I concede, it is a very old treasure map, but it still leads to treasure-and the treasure is immeasurable. There is no need to apologize for its truth, beauty, and wisdom. Our times lack all three.

The Rosary, in the very same way, is also an ancient treasure map, and it still leads to treasure. It is an inexhaustible treasure trove. Take all you can from it today, and if you return tomorrow, you will discover that the treasures the Rosary has to offer are even greater than yesterday's. The best way to learn this wonderful truth is simply to pray the Rosary. Start today!

God bless, Fr. Jey.
