FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PASTOR:

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, Praise be to the Lord. I was reading some material about reflections over Divine Mercy. One of the them which struck me was a reflection about Attentiveness to the value of suffering. This week I am writing about it.

When we suffer, we look for a way out. We seek relief. But from Heaven, we will be able to look back and see the immense power of freely chosen and embraced suffering. It's not that suffering is good in and of itself; rather, it's that suffering has been redeemed and endowed with a spiritual power by God as a result of the sufferings of Christ. Therefore, if you trust in the Lord, let Him reveal to you, here and now, the great value of your suffering freely embraced. By embracing every hardship that comes your way, you will be making an offering to God that can only be understood by grace. This will not make sense to the world, but it will become a powerful weapon of Mercy through which the Lord will do great things to you and through you, He will flood the world with His grace. Do not wait until Heaven to become aware of this sacred gift of the redemption of your inner suffering offered in confident prayer to God (See Diary of St. Faustina #963: Oh, if only the suffering soul knew how it is loved by God, it would die of joy and excess of happiness! Someday, we will know the value of suffering, but then we will no longer be able to suffer. The present moment is ours.)

Are you aware of the power of your suffering when you freely unite it to the sufferings of Christ? Does this make sense to you? This realization is only possible by grace and is only embraced by that same grace. Reflect, upon what you do suffer interiorly and do not shy away from it. Face it, embrace it and love it. For in that holy embrace, God will work wondrously in and through your life.

God bless, Fr. Jey

Volunteering at Casa Hogar: Did you know?

Volunteer Right from Home! You can begin helping with different projects to assist Casa Hogar right from your home by e-mailing us. There are always new events that we need help with and projects that we need ideas for and fundraising for. We encourage you to get your parish, school, or mission club to collaborate in fundraising for the needs of Casa Hogar Juan Pablo III!

Long-term Volunteer at Casa Hogar: Another way to contribute to Casa Hogar is to offer your time and talents as a volunteer. Volunteers' tasks vary according to the duration of stay and the volunteer's interests and capabilities. These range from education or tutoring, nursing assistance or manual labor (painting, gardening, cleaning, etc.) to working directly with the kids within the families and administrative tasks. Because there are some restrictions regarding the number of volunteers we can accept at one time, an application process is required for long-term volunteers.
