SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PASTOR

What a fabulous party on the 12th of July. What a great time for our parish to gather and build up our community. I am thankful for all who set it up and took care of all the details (like the firemen who brought the fire and some chicken) so that many could enjoy themselves. I am thankful for my family coming to be a part of celebrating my 20 years of priesthood, especially my aunt and uncle from Iowa. As some mentioned, twenty years goes pretty fast especially when you are looking back. 20 years of priesthood, so that means I have spent 10% of it here at St. Patrick. I am very much looking forward to much more. Thanks again for all the cards and well wishes. Let us keep praying for priestly vocations.

Part of that 20 years is my priest group. The five of us gather almost monthly throughout the year for prayer and support. We meet for a week's retreat in July and this year will be our 17th year at a friend's cabin. With 95 degree temps coming and without air conditioning, we will have to drink a lot of water. Some years ago when the temps were that high, one of us tried to be the "tough guy" and suffered heat exhaustion. Sometimes you only learn the hard way.

This week end please welcome Fr. O'Brien and keep in prayer the work that Cross Catholic Outreach does on behalf of those who are in need around the world.

Next week I will have my classmate up from Kansas for a few days. So don't be surprised to see two priests up at the altar who are both named "Fr. John".

Soon our Vacation Bible School will be happening; so I ask for your prayers that it is a great time for our young people and all involved to grow in their faith.

So as it is summer, let me share a few more funny and punny jokes with you to take your mind off the heat.

- Why did the chicken cross the road? To see a man laying bricks.
- What is the difference between a platypus and a head of lettuce? One is a funny beast and the other is a bunny feast.
- Hickory dickory dock, three mice ran up the clock. The clock struck one, and the other two escaped with minor injuries.
- How do billboards talk? In sign language.
- When is it bad luck to see a black cat? When you are a mouse.
- Knock, knock! Who's there? Chester. Chester who? Chester minute! Don't you recognize me?
- Did you hear about the dog that ran ten miles to retrieve a stick? That sounds a little far-fetched.
- Diner: Watch out! Your thumb's in my soup! Waiter: Don't worry, sir, it's not that hot!
