SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PASTOR

It all depends on what you hear. My 'next week' meant last week. My classmate's 'next week' meant the week coming up. So he will be coming next week. So we will be working around a few things that are on the calendar for next week.

Friday was the Priests for Tomorrow event held in La Crosse. It is a fundraising dinner on behalf of the seminarians of the diocese. Since we have had three here, I thought it would be a good idea to go and support them. If you are interested in going next year to such an event, it is usually held later in July if you wanted to plan for it. Many of the seminarians are there and are assigned to different tables. You then have the evening to visit with them at your table and learn more about them and the seminary that they attend. This year's speaker was Cardinal Harvey, one of two cardinals from Wisconsin.

Don't forget that this Tuesday is Holy Happy Hour.

Next week I will be out for an afternoon. Every other month I have an appointment for spiritual direction. That and the annual retreat is one of the things that Canon Law lays out for priests that is meant to assist us in growing in the faith. We are all on a pilgrimage and the world always wants to distract us from Jesus and keeping us too busy and unfocused. Spiritual direction is meant to address that while looking more deeply at what God asks of us and how to respond.

I know that the kids don't want to hear this but school starts within a month. The first week of August will have our first Education Committee meeting of the new school year. We will have three new members and it will be the first one for our new principal Karla Reinhardt.

Also beginning on the first week of August is our VBS program. We have a very good number of students signed up already but it is not too late. There will be a number of high school students in the role of counselors helping our teachers. What a great witness they offer by coming back and being such a part of the program.

So yes, the summer is flying by. Here is a little humor to keep it moving.

- What did the baker say to the round of bread? Quit loafing around.
- What did the tree say to the lumberjack? Hey! Leaf me alone.
- What's a plumber's favorite vegetable? Leeks.
- Why did the construction worker dip his finger in blue ink? To get a blueprint.
- Why can't goats get along? Because it's in their nature to butt heads.
- What do you call a hippopotamus that's always sick? A Hippochondriac.
- Two kayakers were chilly, so they lit a fire in their watercraft. It sank, proving once and for all that you can't have your kayak and heat it, too.
- Man: Doctor, I have a problem.
Doctor: What seems to be the problem?
Man: I'm addicted to Twitter.

We at St. Patrick's are fortunate to have a place to come to pray in private before our statue of St. Peregrine, the patron of cancer patients. We welcome everyone to stop to say a prayer for someone with a serious illness as well as ask Our Lord through St. Peregrine to find a cure for this dreaded disease that affects so many people. There is literature about St. Peregrine's life and medals that are blessed along with prayer cards available for anyone to pick up. These are located on the shelf under the candle stand at the front of church next to the St. Peregrine statue.
