

August 29, 2021
TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PASTOR

This week we had our in-service for the teachers. It is a sign we are almost there for a new school year. I am sure the summer has gone by faster than our students wanted (and perhaps some of our parents too!) It is nice to welcome new teachers and staff to St. Patrick's school. With the beginning of anything there is a lot of excitement. I think also the need for prayer, to begin with God's grace, is so important. So thank you for your prayers as we start the new year.

Sunday is our golf outing. Thanks to all those who so generously supported this event. Thanks also to those who are working it so that all involved can fully enjoy themselves.

Tuesday is our Holy Happy Hour at State Street Tap. If you haven't been to one of them, feel free to join us. It is a laid back time to gather for some social time and intentional discussion on an area of faith. It is not a class so there isn't a test. Stop by and check it out.

On Thursday the priests of the Tomah Deanery will be meeting. We do so officially each quarter to coordinate events and ways that we can work together. Like everyone the priests can get pretty busy and not give the time to get together. We can underestimate the importance of spending time together. Each moment adds up; that is true with any relationship.

Speaking of time, September 3rd is First Friday. I invite you to look at your calendar and see if you can stop by and spend some time with Jesus. Adoration begins after the 8 am Mass and concludes with benediction at 4 pm.

All the above seems like planning and schedules. Time is a valuable resource that God gives to us. We prioritize what is most important by giving it time. Seeing that the Word of God, the scriptures are also a gift from God. How much time do we give to them? Every Sunday we have our readings. Those are planned out and can be googled at any time. There are daily readings too. In general, we can pick up our Bible or search for a certain passage and there are apps out there that give us scriptures to pray with and reflect upon.

Perhaps as we get back in the "school mode" spending some time with the scriptures could be a goal or bit of 'homework' that we could do. Maybe your family could read the Sunday readings ahead of time. Even in your car you can livestream the Bible through various apps.

In the Gospel reading from Mark, Jesus gives us much to consider in our own thoughts, words and actions when He says, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile."

In the coming week may we reflect on what comes from our heart, mind and mouth. May it all be for the glory of God and building up of our neighbor.

The USCCB has requested a special emergency collection for Haiti relief in the wake of the massive earthquake and tropical storm that have caused such devastation there. The need is immediate, so we will be taking up a second collection at all Masses this weekend. Please make your checks payable to St. Patrick's and write "Haiti" on the memo line. We are grateful for any gift that you are able to make toward the relief efforts in Haiti. Please pray for the Haitian people as they work toward recovery.

Growing our Ministries ~ As we move towards comfortably and safely growing our Mass attendance, we would also like to grow the participation in our ministries. The liturgy committee is asking for everyone to prayerfully consider sharing their time and talent in the following important Mass ministry areas: lectors, servers, ushers, Eucharistic ministers, greeters and musicians. We are extremely grateful for those parishioners who helped us in the past and those who continued to serve in these areas during the global health emergency. We will continue to ask for their service going forward, but as we grow in attendance, it will be important to share the responsibilities. Please consider how you would like to serve our parish family and call Cassandra Thayer at the rectory 608-747-2681. Thank you so much.
