

September 10, 2023
TWENTY-THIRD
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PASTOR

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, Praise be to the Lord. Welcome back to the newly renovated church. We are all so delightful to be back in our beautiful church. We did have a wonderful opening and blessing of our church on Friday, September 1, 2023. It was so overwhelming. The new thing during the ceremony was honor guard, which many of you haven't seen before. You see them often at high-profile Catholic events, standing in formation, swords at attention, the colorful hats, uniforms and capes a vibrant contrast to an otherwise ordinary congregation.

"The fourth degree of the Knights of Columbus is the patriotic degree, and that is where the honor guard comes from," said John Hundiak, a master of the Fourth Degree for Michigan District No. 1, the Fr. Hennepin Province. "It pertains to the role of the Catholic religion and its history in this country and its place in the future. The Guard of Honor has its origins at Calvary, its foundation in the Wounded Heart of Jesus, its model in the first 'Guard of Honor': the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint John, and Saint Mary Magdalene. They were the ones who stood by the abandoned Cross when the Heart of Christ was pierced by the lance."

The primary purpose of this is to encourage active Catholic citizenship and foster the spirit of patriotism in members and the community at large. The Color Corps members exemplify the principles of our Order such as Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism.

Hats off to Solomon-Juneau County KCs for their beautiful and well-disciplined honor guard.

We celebrate the feast of St. Teresa of Calcutta, who was called 'Mother Teresa'. She spent most of her life in a city called Calcutta in India. She is well known for her love for the poor. A few quotes from Mother Teresa. "If you judge people, you have no time to love them." "Every time you smile at someone, it is an action of love, a gift to that person, a beautiful thing." There is no key to happiness; the door is always open." "Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love." "God does not demand that I be successful; God demands that I be faithful."

God bless, Fr. Jey.

Eucharistic Revival: September 10th

We Respond with Thanksgiving after Receiving Jesus in Holy Communion ~ Through the power of the Holy Spirit, and the words of Jesus repeated by the priest, a miracle happens at every Mass. The substance of the bread and wine become the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus, even though the bread and wine still look the same. When we receive Jesus, we want to thank Him for this incredible Gift. Then we can speak with Him about anything that is on our heart. We also want to listen to what He might say to us in the quiet of our heart. Let's pray this right now and every day this week: "Jesus, I believe in you. Jesus, I hope in You. Jesus, I want to love You with all my heart. Jesus, I thank You for having come to dwell in me as I receive You in Holy Communion. I welcome You into my heart and I ask you to "crowd out" whatever might be there that is not of You. And I desire to give You full reign as my Lord, my Savior and my King". This week, read Psalm 107:1. "Oh give thanks to the Lord, for He is good, for His steadfast love endures forever!"

Catechetical Sunday, a national day to celebrate the ministry of passing on the faith, is next Sunday, September 17. This year's theme is:

"Come to me all you who labor and are burdened"

With these words from the Gospel (Matthew 11:28), the Lord Jesus offers an invitation to follow Him and the promise that He doesn't want to add to our burdens; he wants to lighten them. This theme reminds us that the object of all catechesis is Jesus himself. The role of the Catechist is, first of all, to be a disciple - one who draws close and rests in Jesus - and then to be a witness to others and a companion as they too come to know Jesus. Catechetical Sunday offers an opportunity to recall that all the Baptized have roles in handing on the faith in their daily life, families, work, and church involvement. This week, please be sure to remember and thank those in your life that help you to live your faith each and every day.
