TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

FROM OUR PASTOR

The last few years St. Patrick has been a part of the vocation program of the diocese. We have hosted Fr. Sam McCarty, Fr. Eric Mashak and Fr. Steven Weller. Just this week was the ordination of transitional deacon, Jared Clements. Now we have another opportunity to assist a young man as he begins his journey and discerns where his vocation is and God's plan for him. I encourage you to welcome him and keep Brandon Lea in your prayers.

Hello St. Patrick's Parish, my name is Brandon J. Lea. I am 23 years old. I am currently living in La Crosse at Mater Redemptoris and am part of the Journey Program. I originate from Colby, Wi, a small town west of Wausau about half an hour away from there.

The Journey Program is a 9-month program in which is a discerning period of time to your vocation as a priest. Through this program my Journey brothers and I (10 of us) discover what God is calling of us for our vocations. Many go to seminary; many find out that marriage is a better suit for them. It is a formation in which you are formed into the person God is calling you to be. I first heard about this program about two months ago when I began discerning. I called Father Nate Kuhn with my discernment and he invited me into the Journey Program.

I have many hobbies and interests. One of my highest interest of all is God, I love him so much, and cannot explain all the workings he has had in my life thus far. He has sheltered me, loved me, and blessed me. I am extremely blessed for this opportunity and don't think words can describe how thankful I am. One of my favorite hobbies is to get out and golf or fish. I golf fairly well and fishing is always a blessing from God. I find fishing very therapeutic and I always ask St. Peter to pray for us whenever I get out on the water.

I have been baptized since I was a baby, I fell in love with Jesus as a child, but unfortunately I didn't find myself going to church very often as a child. It wasn't until late into my high school career did I find myself starting to conform to church. Once I was done with my second year in College and dropped out then did I really get into the faith, I started attending mass on Sundays, then eventually going to daily mass, then I wanted to be confirmed and wanted my first communion. I received both within the next 6 months on Pentecost of the year 2021. My family was extremely happy that I was finding something that I found so much joy in.

I've always looked to God growing up. Praying to him in my bed, always asking for a girlfriend, and for him to watch over my brothers. Now my prayer life consists of praying the rosary daily, daily adoration, daily mass, and praying for my Journey brothers. I have never been so happy or joyful in my life till I turned my head to becoming a priest and taken what I call for myself the narrow path. Something I found impossible for myself is now becoming a reality. Something that I could possibly think of doing because I was always praying for a girlfriend or human needs.

I pray you welcome me with open arms, I am not very shy so if you would like to meet me after mass feel free. I will be here once a month for the next 9 months and I am so excited for the Journey and ready to worship God with you all. God Bless!

Thank you, Brandon Lea

Keep up your prayers for priestly vocations from St. Patrick parish!

NEEDED—Religious Education Coordinator / Pastoral Care Minister: St. Patrick Parish is looking for a Religious Ed Coordinator / Pastoral Care Minister. If you enjoy working with people of all ages and have a passion to serve, this position may be for you! For more information or to apply, please contact Father John at 608-847-6054 or email: frjohnpotaczek@stpatricksmauston.com

On October 3rd and 10th (Mondays) from 6:00-7:30, St Joseph's in Adams will be having a "singing symposium", which is for everyone. You do not have to sing in the choir or cantor to attend. Marco Melendez, Director of Music, at St. Maria Goretti Catholic Church in Madison will be leading the symposium which will focus on the technical aspects of a choir and of cantoring. The goal is to help everyone sing better!
